AFRICA CONTINENTAL SUMMIT DECLARATION
NIAMEY, NIGER 2019

Building a Peaceful and Prosperous Africa
Centered on Universal Values

Resolution

International Association of Chiefs for Peace and Prosperity (IACPP)

We, the participants in the Africa Continental Summit – Niger 2019 sponsored by the Universal Peace Federation, in partnership with the Government of Niger, and convened in Niamey, Niger on November 27-30, 2019, recognize the importance of Africa, and its great potential to rise as a unified continent that manifests values of interdependence, mutual prosperity and universal values.

Theme: The Role of the Traditional Rulers for the building of a Pacific and Prosperous Africa centered on Universal Values

Identify traditional cultural mechanisms that are still valid in the current context and describe conflict resolution procedures and peace building.

- The traditional rulers must ensure the protection of the individual and collective rights and freedoms of the citizens and communities for which he is responsible;
- safeguarding harmony and social cohesion;
- the respect of the administrative rules and the law in their application vis-à-vis the citizens and the communities;
- Respect for religious tolerance, an peace and customary practices insofar as these practices do not disturb public order and affect the rights and freedoms of other members of the community;
- to defend the interests of citizens and communities
